

Thought for October 2021

By Revd. Claire Claxton

As I prepare my talk and puppet play for our harvest thanksgiving service on Sunday, I have been reflecting on the concept of sharing. My bird puppets are not very keen on sharing their stash of fruit and seeds with the newcomer but they come round to the idea and find that, despite their fears of having less for themselves, they end up with more as their new friend also shares.

I remember, as children, my cousins and brothers and I were taught we must always take the one nearest to us when offered a plate of cakes. This was a hard lesson to learn when the biggest one was at the far side of the plate! And, if I was asked to carry the plate, I remember turning it as I offered it so that I would end up with the biggest cake at the end!

The Bible tells us that God loves a cheerful giver and is able to shower all kinds of blessings on us when we give to others. (2 Corinthians 6: 7-8)

This year so far, the Church has raised funds for Grow Limited, the Tomaini Fund, Macmillan Cancer Support and the Afghanistan Crisis Appeal and I am very grateful to the many people who give so generously to support charities such as these as well as the church. The harvest gifts of food will be passed on to Guernsey Welfare and there is a Guernsey Welfare basket at the back of church in which groceries can be left at any time during the year.

There are lots of ways in which we can use our 'time, talents and treasure' for others. Social studies have proven that helping others is good for us in that it gives us a sense of purpose and promotes well-being. And God will bless us too. I call that a win-win situation!

A Prayer for Today

No matter what happens to us, teach us to be thankful for every precious minute of time. Help us not to take for granted your gift of life itself, our health and strength, the love and support of family and friends, the beauty of your creation. You give so much to us dear Lord, help us to give you something in return, the love of our hearts, a willingness to serve you and to share your love with others.

Farewell to Bishop Trevor

The Rt Revd Trevor Willmott has provided episcopal care for the deaneries of Guernsey and Jersey since March 2014. He retired as Bishop of Dover in May 2019, but has continued to support us in retirement, as we have awaited the report of the Archbishop's Commission and the implementation of the decision that our attachment should be to the Diocese of Salisbury. Bishop Willmott will be visiting the Bailiwick of Guernsey from 11 – 15 October, to take leave of us.

There will be a Confirmation service at St Saviour's church on Tuesday 12 October and a farewell service at the Town Church at 6.30 pm on Thursday 14 October (followed by a reception).

All are welcome to attend these services.

Vases

With the harvest service fast approaching for this weekend I thought I'd let you know that there is a selection of pots and vases available, in the store next to the loos, if you need them for flower arranging.

I've had a bit of a sort out in there so hopefully items are now more accessible. If any of the items are yours and you wish to reclaim them please do so.
